

Barton

Language Access Services

BRIDGING THE GAP is a leading, nationally-recognized medical interpreter training program in the United States. The quality of health care often depends as much on the interpreter as the provider.

- What: Bridging the Gap for Medical Interpreters
When: July 15 - 19 OR October 7 - 11
Where: 1113 Emerald Bay Road, Barton University, Room 101, South Lake Tahoe, CA, 96150.
Cost: $750

Course content:

In this five (5) day/40 hour course, participants will learn:

- Basic interpreting skills
- Ethics
- Communication techniques
- Medical vocabulary
- Key health care information
- Communication skills for advocacy
- How to draft practical, working solution
- Professional development

Training fee includes:

- 40 training hours
- Bridging the Gap Interactive Textbook for Medical Interpreters
- Eligibility to enroll in the Bridging the Gap Training of Trainers course
- Other training publications

For more information, email las@bartonhealth.org or visit:
<http://las.barton.s483.sureserver.com/drupal/events>